ERRATUM.—On page 141, of this number, second line of article, "Virginia and the Act of Navigation," the year is printed 1661, it should be 1651.

Fitzhugh Letters.—The following details as to persons whose names appear in the first instalment of the Fitzhugh Letters, July number of Virginia Magazine of History, will be of interest:

Page 27. Colonel Isaac Allerton, of Westmoreland county, Virginia, was the son of Isaac Allerton, one of the principal immigrants in the Mayflower, and his wife, Faith, daughter of Elder William Brewster. He was born at Plymouth, 1630, graduated at Harvard College, 1650, and soon came to Virginia There is recorded in Northumberland county (including Westmoreland), an order dated Feb. 6, 1650, in which it is stated that according to an order of the Governor and Council, inquiry had been made concerning the complaint of the Machoatick Indians about Mr. Allerton's (possibly the elder) intending a plantation upon them, the court being directed, if the Indians were not content with his being there, to remove them; but due inquisition being made. the said Indians, and the werowance Peckatoan (also the name of a well known plantation in Westmoreland), declared they were well content with Mr. Allerton staying there, so long as the land ("wherever hee hath already cleared") be useful, provided that no more houseing be there built than is now upon it, and to keep his cattle and hogs on the other side of Machoatick river. There is also recorded in Northumberland, 1657, the deposition of William Nutt, that about February preceding, he and other commissioners of Northumberland county, being appointed by the Governor and Council to inquire concerning the seating of Mr. Isaac Allerton's land at Machoatic, Mr. Wm. Cooke being requested to be interpreter, the deponent heard Captain Peter Lefebeer promise to pay, on the said Allerton's behalf, to the said Cooke 1,000 lbs. of tobacco in case Allerton seated farther. (See Hening I, 456-7). Colonel Allerton was sworn a Justice of Northumber. land county, 22d April, 1663; was a member of the "Committee of the Association of North'd, West'd & Stafford," November 1st, 1667 (Northumberland records, and see Hening II, 257); in September, 1675, as major, was second to Colonel John Washington in command of Virginia forces in expedition against the Indians; was, November 5th, 1677, second in the commission of the peace for Westmoreland and of the quorum; member of the House of Burgesses, February, 1676-7 (Westmoreland records); was appointed a member of the Council 1683 (Sainsbury Abstracts). In a letter dated June 10th, 1691, Governor Nicholson reports to the English Government that Richard Lee, Isaac Allerton and John Armistead, out of scruple of conscience, refused to take the oaths, and so were left out of the Council. (Ibid).

It is stated that he had a wife, Elizabeth, as early as 1652; and, in 1663, she is described in the Westmoreland records as Elizabeth, formerly relict of Major George Colclough, of Northumberland; but, recorded in Northumberland, and dated February 20th, 1663, Thomas Willowby and Sarah, his wife (who was certainly a daughter of Richard Thomson, of Northumberland), give a power of attorney to "our loving brother Isaac Allerton," while in Northumberland, November 20th, 1658, George Colclough, who had married Ursula, widow of Colonel John Mottrom, and before of Richard Thomson, was appointed guardian of Richard and Sarah, infants of said Richard Thomson. This is a nut for the genealogists to crack. Colonel Isaac Allerton's will was dated 25th October, 1702, and proved in December following.

See also, "The Allertons of New England and Virginia"; New England Historical and Genealogical Register, July, 1891.

Page 27. In the Richmond Critic, January 15, 1889, was published an inquiry from Mr. and Mrs. E. Salisbury, New Haven, Connecticut, in regard to "John Lord, son of Mr. Thomas Lord, one of the original proprietors of Hartford; married first, Rebecca Bushnell, of Guilford; second, Andrew [?] Basey, of Hartford. He left her and went to Virginia. An excellent letter from him to his nephew, Mr. Richard Lord, of Hartford, is dated 'Apomatixe' (now Mattox, Westmoreland), the 20th of February, 1663. He appeared to have been engaged in raising tobacco, but speaks also of "barley."

There is recorded in Westmoreland a power of attorney, dated August 2d, 1654, from Richard Lord, of Hartford, New England, to his brother, John Lord, of the same place; and in Northumberland, another power from John Lord, of "Hartford," in New England, merchant, to James Garler, to recover debts due said John Lord and his brother, Richard Lord ("as by his general power of attorney recorded in Westmoreland county may appear"), and also from Mr. Daniel Litsco, of "the Manatas" (Manhattan), from John Earle, of Northumberland county, Virginia, and Dr. William Addams, of the same county, witnessed by Charles Norwood (Clerk of the Virginia Assembly), and Richard Lord.

Captain John Lord, as appears by a deed, was living in Westmoreland in 1668, was a Justice, and of the Quorum of that county, November 5th, 1677.

There is a deed, dated March 31st, 1714, from William Lord, of Westmoreland county, gentleman, conveying to Richard Knight certain land, which was purchased by "John Lord, high Sheriff of Westmoreland," and father of the said Wm. Lord. Wm. Lord, himself, was Sheriff of Westmoreland in 1729.

At an early period there seems to have been considerable intercourse between the Northern Neck and New England. Besides the Allertons and Lords, Wm. Fitzhugh mentions, later, lands owned by Prescott, whose will had been dated, or proved, at New London; there is recorded in Lancaster a deed, dated May 18, 1681, from Richard Merriman, gentleman, of that county, attorney of Mr. Thomas Kelland and and Mr. Anthony Haywood, of the town of Boston, to Mr. Richard Perrott, of the county of Middlesex in Virginia (Margaret, widow of Richard Perrott, and, before of Thomas Dale, in her will, 1687, names her brother, Mr. Anthony Haywood, and her sister, Mrs. Catherine Hide). Mr. Thomas Broughton of Virginia assigns, in Northumberland county, March 30, 1659, a patent to Mr. Thomas Broughton, in New England, (there is in Northumberland the deposition, dated September 20, 1652, of Thomas Broughton, aged 29 years); the will of Mrs. Mary Broughton [x], relict of Thomas Broughton, dated January 2d, 1662, proved in Northumberland, February 10, 1662, her sons Thomas, Mathew and William Keene (of Northumberland) and Elizabeth Persey. (Part of this will is worn out). Richard Rice [x] and Ann, his wife, made deed, Northumberland, April, 1666, to John Saffin, of Boston, New England, merchant, for 100 acres of land (consideration 6,000 pounds of tobacco) on the Metapony river in said county, adjoining the land called Exeter Lodge, formerly possessed by Thomas Broughton, and now by said Saffin. And in 1667, Thomas Hickman and Mary [x], his wife, of Northumberland, conveyed to John Saffin, of Boston, one-half of their plantation of 800 acres, adjoining the land of said Saffin, called Exeter Lodge.

Page 42. Thomas Mathew (as he invariably writes his name), of Cherry Point, Northumberland, was beyond a doubt, the "T. M." who, at the request of Harley, and he states in his preface, 13th June, 1705, "obliged his pen to step aside from its habitual element of ffigures" and prepare an account of Bacon's Rebellion; but an examination of the records of Northumberland county, Virginia, shows that there is no ground for the conjecture of Campbell and others (followed in the Virginia Historical Magazine, July, 1893, page 92), that he was a son of Governor Samuel Matthews.

The records of the Northern Neck counties show that Thomas Mathew was extensively engaged in business as a merchant and planter. He was a Justice of Northumberland, 1672, 1676, and as he states, of the House of Burgesses, 1676. In 1671, Robert Walton, by will dated January 14th, 1669, and proved, Northumberland, July 19th, 1671, gives most of his estate to his wife, son Charles, and daughter, all then in England; and legacies to his sister, Miss Frissie Mathew, and his brother, Thomas Mathew, of Northumberland county, Va. Thomas Mathew returned to England and died in 1705 or 1706.

The will of Thomas Mathew, formerly of Cherry Point, Bowtracy (a parish unknown to Bishop Meade, but frequently appearing in the early records of the county), Northumberland county, Va., merchant; dated May 6th, 1703, and proved P. C. C. February 6th, 1706, as that of Thomas Mathew, of the parish of St Margaret's, Westminister; directs that if he die in or about London, he shall be buried by his son William, in the Church of St. Dunstan in the East—Legatees; his sons John and Thomas and daughter Anne, to whom he gives his lands in Stafford county; and at Cherry Point, Northumberland, &c, &c.; and directs that his brother-in-law, Captain John Cralle, shall hold his tenure in Cherry Point Neck during life. Captain Cralle presented the will for record in Northumberland.

The register of St. Stephen's parish, Northumberland, gives the dates of the births of his children, John, March 23d, 1677; Ann, February 27th, 1679; and Thomas, January 23d, 1680.

March 5th, 1677-'8, Northumberland County Court, sitting at the house of Mr. Thomas Mathew, as a "Court Maratime," gave judgment against Mr. Robert Finney, master of the ship Constant Mathew, of London, for a violation of the navigation laws.

Northumberland, February, 1679-80, the court ordered a certificate to be granted to Mr. Thomas Mathew for 3,800 acres of land, for the transportation of seventy-six persons into the colony, including himself and ten negroes from Barbadoes, himself from London, and himself and three negroes from New England.

By a power of attorney, dated January 3d, 1737, Thomas Mathew, of Sherborn Lane, London, gent. (the surviving executor of Thomas Mathew, of Cherry Point, in Virginia, merchant); and Mr. John Mathew, of London, merchant, and his wife, who was the only daughter of the said Thomas Mathew, deceased, reciting that Thomas Mathew left a plantation in Stafford county, Va., to his three children, John, Thomas and Anna, and the said John having died intestate in 1735, and no issue living, authorize Thomas Crompton, of Maryland, to sell the said plantation.

Fourth Virginia Regiment in the Revolution.—Mr. P. Fall Taylor, of Frankfort, Kentucky, in sending us the subjoined lists, writes as follows:

"Striking evidence is given of the condition of the troops of the Virginia Line in 1778 by the 'return' made by Lieutenant Samuel Gill, of the Fourth Virginia Regiment.

"These men had served out the term of their enlistment, which must have been a long and hard one, and were on their way home. Of these 'old Continentals in their ragged regimentals' not one could 'fall in' with a complete equipment, and some of them were without either coat, 'hatt' or shoes; even 'overhalls' seem to have been a luxury.

"Of the officers, Brigadier-General Charles Scott was a brave but rough veteran of the French and Indian war, where he served as a corporal in Braddock's defeat. He is said to have raised and commanded the first company of volunteers raised south of James river for the Revolution. He was in active service, and his promotion was rapid until he was taken prisoner at Charleston in 1780, from which time he was on parole until the end of the war. In 1785 he removed to Kentucky, presumably to locate the 13,000 acres of bounty land given him by Virginia. He was appointed brigadier-general of the Kentucky militia, and served in the Indian wars with St. Clair, Wilkinson and Wayne until his election as Governor, in 1808, for a term of four years, which closed his public life.

"Heitman's 'Historical Register of the Officers of the Continental Army' states: 'Samuel Gill, ensign Fourth Virginia, 10th February, 1776; first lieutenant, November, 1776; captain, January, 1777; retired 14th September, 1778.' For his services Lieutenant Gill received 4.000 acres of bounty land in Kentucky, and it was among some old land claims that these papers, with his commission, were found in an old trunk.

"Trusting that the publication of these documents will induce others to bring out their venerable relics of the Revolution, they are offered to the readers of the Virginia Magazine.
